Rules & Regulations Small Animal Division

This division consists of the following projects:

Pet Rabbits, Cats, Guinea Pigs, Hamsters, Pocket Pets (gerbils, mice, rats), Poultry, Rabbits, and Self-determined Small Animals.

General Rules:

- A. Feeding time in the Small Animal Barn shall be 7:00 a.m. through 10:00 p.m.
- B. The small animal barn closes at 10:00 p.m. daily.
- C. Each exhibitor shall provide his own food. Cages shall be cleaned by exhibitor daily.
- D. Any member's animal not taken care of will be asked to be removed upon the recommendation of Junior Fair Board, Adult Advisor and notification of parents. Member will not be permitted to exhibit small animal next year.
- E. Any Junior Fair Board member or Barn Superintendent must have an entry in the Small Animal department.
- F. Dismissal will be Saturday after 6:00 p.m. and Sunday 11:00 am to 2:00 p.m.
- G. Any participant with ANY Small Animal remaining after 2:00 p.m. on the Sunday check-out date, without prior arrangements, will not be permitted to participate the following year in the Butler County Fair with any Small Animal project.

1. Livestock Sale

Rabbits and poultry will be put in sale rotation with ALL pens of poultry and all pens of rabbits being auctioned. Turkeys will be sold in auction this year ALL will sell. Grand/Reserve Champions will sell in the Sale of Champions at 9:00 a.m. at the Livestock Sale.

2. All entries must be in by the deadline of:

June 9th – Rabbits and Poultry are to be sent to the Butler County Fairgrounds

No late entries or late arrivals will be accepted. If vacations or other circumstances conflict, advisors and members must make an agreement to secure all details about getting animal to the fairgrounds. Members must show their own animal unless they have another Junior Fair Show, at which time, the member must notify a Junior Fair Board member in the Small Animal department and secure another Junior Fair member to show their animal.

3. Sick/Dead Animals

The Junior Fair Board members, Advisors and Fair Superintendents are not liable for dead or injured animals. It is up to the Senior Fair Board member's discretion whether or not an animal is suitable for show or display. If Junior Fair Board members and Adult Advisors find sick animals, they will contact the Senior Fair Board members in charge of the small animals dept. to have a veterinarian check the animal. If it is found to be unfit for show or display, the owner will be asked to remove the animal from the building. The Junior Fair Board members or Adult Advisors, in consultation with the Senior Fair Board, also have a right to turn away any animal that is found unfit the day they are brought to the fairgrounds. In case the animal would die, the owner must be notified first. If the owner cannot be notified, the advisor will be notified, and the animal will be removed from display. Any animal not taken care of by the owner (food, water, clean bedding at least once a day) will be asked to take the animal home. No Locks Permitted on Cages. This interferes with the superintendent's access to the animals for watering or emergencies.

4. Animal Replacement

All specifications for project requirements must be set before the animal would be allowed to compete in the show, (i.e., Pen-of-Three Meat or Poultry must consist of three animals). Animal ownership: replacement of animal for competition will not be permitted after May 1 of current year unless specified.

5. Showmanship Guidelines

1. The showmanship contest will be open to any Junior Fair exhibitor in Rabbits or Poultry.
2. Rabbit/Poultry Showmanship will be an oral interview with the judge, and participants must have their animal present during judging. Rabbit showmanship judging will be on Sunday after Open Class show. Poultry showmanship judging will be held on Monday, after the Poultry Show.
3. Winner of Age Class will compete for Showman of Showmen.
4. Each year, Showman of Showmen judging will alternate between the rabbit judge and poultry judge. Therefore, judging will be held on either Monday or Wednesday of the fair.
5. Contestants show the animal they exhibited. Except for the Small Animals showman of showman.
6. An exhibitor can only win a showmanship class once. If a younger member wins the class this year, he/she will compete in the next age class next year, unless he/she is a Showman of Showmen winner. An exhibitor can only win Rabbit or Poultry Showman of Showmen once, then will continue to compete in Small Animals Showman of Showmen until won.
